With this walking route you walk exactly between different Limburg villages. The Watertoren walk is a route all the way on the east side of South Limburg, close to the border of Germany. This border route will surprise you, thanks to a beautiful nature and some unique sights that are on the program during the trip. You start at Camping De Watertoren, where you can also get a nice cup of coffee and park your car. This route is not marked with posts, but a separate route description is available under download, making the route easy to follow.
